

Brussels, 19th January 2021

Dear Member,

At the start of the new year, we would like to take the opportunity to send you our best wishes for 2021 and sincerely thank you for the trust you have placed in DPO-pro throughout this year.

The year 2020 has been an unprecedented challenge for all of us. The unexpected crisis we are going through has turned our personal and professional lives upside down. Despite this situation, DPO-pro has adapted and brings its members together at numerous organized online conferences and has created partnerships that promise to be rich in achievements!

DPO-pro reiterates its commitment to you and will continue to represent his members and keep you informed of information and directives concerning the GDPR via the new communication channels put in place.

On 28th January at 4 pm, we will be hosting a New Year's webinar to present our annual programme. Register now. .

The year 2021 promises to be exciting!

Whats new in 2021 ?

- • • DPO-pro Mag' : in partnership with Anthémis and Die keure, a new newsletter is born. This will be sent to you quarterly from March.
- • • You will have the opportunity to participate in a minimum of 8 conferences. The following topics are already being considered: Cookies, Protection of fundamental rights: privacy, freedom of expression, business secrets, Digital Services Act, Cybersecurity, direct marketing,...
- • • « Member gets Member » Each member will be able to invite a non-member to one of our future online events / conferences for free. This person may participate for the first time under the same conditions as a member. Do you know another DPO that is not yet part of DPO-pro? Keep him informed of our events and invite him to join us!
- • • The collaboration has come about between DPO-pro and the AFCDP as well as with the Data Protection Institute.
